

March 27, 1990

CLERK: I have a priority motion, Mr. President, that would be to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, March 28. It is offered by Senator Withem.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Anything further for the record?

CLERK: Nothing further for the record, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The question is, shall the body adjourn until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. All in favor say aye. Opposed no. The ayes have it, the motion carried. We are adjourned. (Gavel.)
